TABLE TALK

A little storage behind the sofa.

BY STACEY McLACHLAN

SOUND OF SILVER

The shining Reflection console table from Urban Barn may be head-to-toe silver, but its subtle art deco style is pure gold. $470

METRO CARTE

Display your baubles on the sophisticated lattice shelf of Maria Yee's Metro console, or tuck them away in one of the three handy drawers. $1,300

SIMPLY THE BEST

Mazalto's Simplice Pathos console offers simple elegance with a crisscrossing chrome base. It complements your sofa, but may end up stealing the spotlight. $5,330

OLD AND BEAUTIFUL

The design of the Macassar console from EntreNous is as striking as the ebony tree its wood derived from. $2,380

CLASSIC COOL

Designed by Eileen Grey in 1925, ClassiCon's daybed is still beautiful. $7,080

A SOPHISTICATE'S SLEEPOVER

A sleek, angular design helps the metal-framed Astoria daybed from BedCetera turn easily from day to night. $550

BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

Not quite chaise, not quite sofa—the Kent daybed from Sofa So Good offers a modern take on living room lounging. $1,098

day tripper

Anytime's naptime with these cool daybeds.

HAVE BED, WILL TRAVEL

The Travel Studio bed by Ligne Roset glides out when you need it and stores an extra trundle bed underneath. $5,575

FINER THINGS

With its linen and fine hardwood, Restoration Hardware's upholstered daybed has a timeless elegance. $2,250—S.M.
