

Winnipeg

Winter 2010

The guide for living local

WOMEN

200+ Holiday Ideas

What to do, eat, wear and buy in the 'Peg this season.

Plus an interview with the WRHA's CEO
Arlene Wilgosh.

For the KBR show guide turn to page 94

Baby, It's Cold Outside

These winter warmers are the perfect way to make sure your friends and family stay toasty during the chilly winter months.

From bottom left: Scarves, $39 each, from Bejewelled; light-weight fashion gloves, $19, from Peppertree Fashions; bison footstool, $190, from The Wonderful World of Sheepskin; ear-flap hat, $37, from Boes; fog lantern, $40 and honey pot fireburner, $25, both from The Garden Room; Lavish Lamb blanket, $39.99; pajamas, $70, from Diva Lingerie; faux mink blanket, $129, from Urban Barn; striped sweater by Steelman, $195, and FunSport shell, $110, and sweater, $130, all from Chestnut Lane Boutique; cashmere-lined leather gloves, $100, and scarves, $125 each, all from Vittorio Rossi Clothiers; Harley Davidson tuque, $19.94, Harley Davidson Winnipeg; "tea book", $36, Ocean Pure tea cup and saucer (part of a set of two with spoons), $75, bronze Beehouse teapot, $54.99, and warmer, $15, all from Cornelia Bean; Lindt chili chocolate bar, $3.39, from DeLuca's Specialty Foods; soft travel mug, $19.99, from McNally Robinson Booksellers; Uganda Bugisu "AA" coffee, $7.50/half lb, and Mexican "Oaxaca", $7/half lb, both from Black Pearl Coffee.

See page 62 for retailer contact information.